Helping a Worthy Cause...

The sunny Bahamian island of Eleuthera is the setting for Camp Bahamas, a Christian sports camp for Bahamian and American teenagers. Land'or employees Lori Crume, Terry Cole and John Ruch, assisted by Paris Crume and Hattie Ruch, spent a week in July volunteering as camp counselors. Over 100 mostly orphaned and disadvantaged Nassau teens learned about teamwork and personal responsibility while participating in such sports as snorkeling, water volleyball, basketball and paintball. The camp has been held since its inception at a rented facility; land is currently being cleared and cabins built by volunteer teams so that Camp Bahamas can improve its ability to serve needy Bahamian youth. To that end, Club Land'or donated $5000 to cabin construction, as well as sponsoring 10 campers from a local Nassau orphanage. "They (the campers) were really excited to be able to snorkel, make new friends and enjoy things that tourists always get to do but they never have the ability to, living in Nassau", said counselor Prince Strachan. Camp Director Richard Albury and his wife Andrea have been serving the youth of the Bahamas through youth ministry in Bahamian churches, youth retreats, day camps, weekly summer camps, and facilitating short term mission trips for a variety of church and school groups for the past several years. If you would like to donate to this worthy cause, please visit their website at www.campbahamas.com.

A happy camper!

The Kulik, Fortunato and Beyer families

All smiles at the Tuesday
Rose Island Day Trip

Nancy and Alan Kulik of Fort Lee, NJ recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at Club Land'or along with daughter and son-in-law Lisa and Steve Fortunato and friends Betty and Leo Beyer. "We call this place our 'little jewel' and we keep coming back due to the outstanding service", says Nancy. Betty adds that the resort is "family-oriented, friendly and safe, and we never run out of things to do here!" The Fortunatos brought son Tommy and twins Eva and Elizabeth and feel that a visit to Club Land'or is like visiting someone's home. "It's like visiting family because we know everyone's name", comments Lisa. Congratulations to the Kuliks on 50 years together and we look forward to future visits!
